

Training Course	Target Group	Requirement	Bookings
Leading & Managing Safeguarding in Schools (Single Agency)	New Headteachers / New Designated Safeguarding Lead	New Headteachers need to attend this training on appointment and must then attend refresher training every three years Designated Safeguarding Leads need to attend this training on appointment and must then attend refresher training every two years .	BEEM
Refresher Training Leading & Managing Safeguarding in Schools (Single Agency)	Headteachers/Designated Safeguarding Leads	Headteachers need to attend this training every three years . Designated Safeguarding Leads need to attend this training every two years .	BEEM
Train the Trainer: Local Child Protection Materials	Headteachers / Designated Safeguarding Leads	Schools need to be able to deliver Safeguarding training for staff within one term of their appointment, and then to update this training every year. This training supports that process.	BEEM
LSCB Working Together to Safeguard Children 1. Developing a Core Understanding	Designated Safeguarding Leads in Schools	Designated Safeguarding Leads are expected to attend the three core modules as soon as practicable on their appointment to the post. The modules need to be taken in order. In subsequent years the DSL is expected to attend additional training. This is provided through the Education Safeguarding Network termly meetings and through courses and events provided by the LSCB.	LSCB
LSCB Working Together to Safeguard Children 2. Assessment, Referral and Investigation	Designated Safeguarding Leads in Schools	Designated Safeguarding Leads are expected to attend the three core modules as soon as practicable on their appointment to the post. The modules need to be taken in order.	LSCB
LSCB Working Together to Safeguard Children 3. Child Protection Conference and Core Groups	Designated Safeguarding Leads in Schools	Designated Safeguarding Leads are expected to attend the three core modules as soon as practicable on their appointment to the post. The modules need to be taken in order.	LSCB
The LSCB also offer a range of other courses that enable Designated Safeguarding Leads and Headteachers to progress their education around safeguarding issues		For more information please visit the LSCB training web page.	LSCB
Safer Recruitment Update Training	Headteachers / Members of school leadership teams	This session provides an overview of the requirements of 'safer recruitment' related legislation £30	NSPCC
Educational Visits Co-ordinator Training	School Staff responsible for Educational Visits	The designated Educational Visits Co-ordinator from each school needs to undertake update Educational Visits Co-ordinate training every 3 years	BEEM
Health & Safety Training: Roles and Responsibilities for Headteachers	Headteachers (Deputy Heads also welcome to attend)	Headteachers should attend this training on appointment and once every three years	BEEM